

The Weekly Jog

Volume 2, Issue 17 Jog: to nudge, to give a reminder, jog the memory

23rd April 2008

“The New Plymouth Church Family Experiencing and Sharing the Transforming Power of Jesus.”

Brad Harrub in seminar:

Bible and Science

April 24th through to the 27th,
2008.
7pm Nightly, 10 & 11 am
Sunday

Brad Harrub, Ph.D

Brad Harrub, Ph.D., holds an earned B.S. degree in biology from Kentucky Wesleyan College (1993), and an earned Ph.D. (2001) degree in Anatomy and Neurobiology from the from the University of Tennessee, School of Medicine.

Dewayne Bryant in seminar:

“Light from the Past.”

27th through to the 30th April
2008, 7pm nightly.

Dewayne earned a BA degree in history from Lipscomb University (1998). He has earned MA degrees in Biblical Studies (Reformed Theological Seminary, 2000) and Bible (Lipscomb University, 2003), currently finishing a third degree in Biblical and Ancient Near Eastern Archaeology and Languages (Trinity Evangelical Divinity School).

Let's make an effort to ensure that our time with these two men is spent wisely by inviting our friends, neighbours and acquaintances to hear the truth with regards to the 'Creation Evolution' debate by Brad. To listen to the testimony of archaeology presented by Dewayne. This is an opportunity to learn and be a part of a great seminar.

Without A Doubt!

Teresa Hampton

As I write, we're flying home from a visit out west. I look out the airplane window at 30,000 feet and see fluffy layers of clouds below. It's like a vast blanket of cotton balls. In stark contrast, the sky above is a pure azure blue and continues upward. Try as I might, even a far distance above the earth, I cannot see the ceiling of heaven. Looking out the window, I begin to see the red glow of the setting sun on the western horizon, and remember how golden the sun appeared that morning as it rose in the east. Try as I might, with no obstructions at 30,000 feet, I cannot see the beginning of East or the end of West.

The unending beauty of the heavens and immeasurable distance between east and west remind me of David's poetry in song, "For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him" (Psalm 103:11). Is David, by inspiration, saying that God's mercy toward us is unending? Without a doubt! But he goes on, "As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us" (103:12). Is David saying God has put an immeasurable distance between his obedient children and their sin? Without a doubt!

I trust in God's infinite mercy, which surrounds me each day. And I trust in the gracious gift of His salvation. The Bible, open before me on an unsecured tray table, gives me this calm assurance. Without a doubt!

Today's Verse: "But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, and His righteousness to children's children, to such as keep His covenant and to those who remember His commandments to do them." Psalm 103:17-18

Allan's Psalms Journal. (Read the chapter and mark your Bible)

Psalms. 5.

- 1- David, with the surrounding dangers and seemingly ever-present enemies, cries out to God with Joy knowing that he will always protect him. In verse 10, asks God to destroy them because they have rebelled against God.
- 2- We see the mercy and love of God here. Chesed .(Micah 6:8). Loving kindness of the Lord.

Allan